The Law of Attraction

You may already be familiar with the Law of Attraction, the metaphysical and philosophical principle that states:

*What we focus on, on the inside,
We create on the outside.*

Other ways of describing it would be:

We create our reality with our thoughts.

Thoughts are things and have energy, which is a creative force that manifests in our life experiences.

The outer reflects the inner.

The Universe is our mirror.

Or as Star Wars put it:

Your focus creates your reality.

Millions of people are using affirmations – positive statements written in present tense – as one technique for applying the Law of Attraction (LoA) to create a desired outcome, for love, success, health or any life goal. Proper use of affirmations, along with other advanced Law of Attraction practices, can catalyze wonderful positive changes in your life because, when you change your thoughts, you change your life.

But many people have found that they can state affirmations until they are blue in the face - and still have very little green in the bank!

I understand your frustration. I've been there. As a hypnotherapist, intuitive, energy healer, spiritual counselor and life coach, for the past 15 years, I have been researching, applying and even channeling techniques for personal transformation and manifestation.

You see, I tried virtually every personal growth technique under the sun for creating positive change. I have found what works and what doesn't. And I have discovered a revolutionary method for attracting your heart's desire, whether you want more money, more love, more health, more happiness -- or all of the above. I have applied these principles to manifest my Twin Flame soulmate, now husband of 12 years, set myself free from soul-sapping "day gag" paycheck jobs forever, and even quadrupled my income in 90 days!

But I don't ask you to accept my word for it. Try these methods for yourself! That's why I am giving you this information today, as a gift.

I use holistic, omnidimensional methods of healing, reprogramming, focusing and manifestation that absolutely work, if you know how to use them and do so correctly and consistently. And I am passionate about helping people really succeed and absolutely create the LIFE AND LOVE OF YOUR DREAMS. I'm delighted the Universe is giving you this information today!

In just a moment, I'll be sharing with you the Three Levels of Law of Attraction Manifestation, along with some amazing new mind-body-spirit techniques to give your affirmations more MUSCLE so they really work and help you get to a much higher level of success and wealth.

The Three Levels of Law of Attraction Manifestation

Level I: Law of Attraction & Affirmations 101 – HOPE – Novice Level - Identifying Your Desires

First, let's just review some foundational information about affirmations with which you may already be familiar, then we will build upon these. What many Law of Attraction experts recommend, and what most people do with affirmations, is to simply think, read or state them, over and over. I call this Affirmations 101, the beginner level.

At this level, you are getting used to the idea that you can actually shape your outer reality just by changing what you focus on. You are essentially exploring the new territory of personal growth and mind-body healing. The primary mental/emotional state at this level is HOPE.

But here's the problem with Level I and why, when you operate at this level, any change you manage to create just does not last:

Just trying to force yourself through willpower alone is not very effective. This is why we hypnotherapists call it “won't power” because it will eventually peter out. And, frankly, if you are just trying to create change using Level I methods, it's a heck of a lot of work! This is the very same reason why most dieters gain back all the weight they lost (and then some) within 2 years, why most people cannot quit smoking easily, and why most habits take 30 to 40 days to change, according to research studies.

Just setting New Year's resolutions and affirming at the conscious level is not enough.

Even taking logical action steps toward your goal is not enough – because enough of YOU is not lined up -- with your intention.

You may experience occasional progress, but it's two steps forward, one or two steps back. It feels like you are trying to “push the river” – to “make” something happening, but you keep slipping back into your old pattern again, despite your efforts.

For example, one of my clients, Anna, was struggling with trying to find love. While she was affirming, “My perfect soulmate is here” over and over, part of her still did not believe this was true.

Even worse, a deeper part did not even believe she deserved it, so no matter how many affirmations she said, the soulmate did not show up. Her unconscious program was still running: “I’m never going to find love again,” and “Love hurts. It’s safer to be alone.”

Another student and client, Cathy, had been working with affirmations for prosperity for years, yet still kept experiencing fear, lack and struggle. Subconsciously she was running several common limiting beliefs about money that will keep a person in debt and struggle forever until they are totally released and transformed. (Clients in my private coaching and new P3 coaching group are guided to successfully reprogram these.)

So while the novice Level I techniques on their own will not produce many results, the positive purpose of this level is to help you identify your desires, to educate and inspire you so you open you up to the next level, where real change begins to happen.

Level II: - Law of Attraction & Affirmations 202 BELIEF - Intermediate Level - Intending

Most of the popularized Law of Attraction techniques such as those from The Secret and the Abraham-Hicks work can help you reach this intermediate level. Here, you will likely experience partial success because now, not only do you know what you want, you actually BELIEVE YOU CAN HAVE IT and YOU DESERVE IT.

An absolutely fundamental piece that The Secret does not emphasize enough is that deep self-love and deservingness are the key. The Secret mentions the importance of belief but what people need is proven tools to strengthen this belief, deep within.

My first book, *The Radical Self-Love Workbook*, presents dozens of exercises and proven practices to help you heal your core issue (deservingness). From this strong, centered foundation of inner peace, confidence and happiness, you can then attract and create the life of your dreams. That book, which is actually a hands-on action guide, and self-love coaching, help focus on the inner healing work that is the prerequisite for successfully prospering, finding love and achieving any positive life goal. (See Resources at the end for more information about this.)

The primary mental/emotional state at Level II is BELIEF. At this level, you not only are hoping or wishing for something wonderful, you truly believe YOU can have it, more and more of the time. So your intention is at a higher energetic vibration because belief is much stronger than mere hope, because hope contains a large dose of doubt within it.

As you operate increasingly at Level II, you begin to notice that your focus does indeed affect your reality. Some of what you are intending, visualizing and affirming is showing up. However, the changes are not showing up quite fast or as completely as you'd like.

While you believe you really do have the power to change your life, you still wonder: Why is this taking so long? And why do I sometimes attract something, only to lose it again?

At this level, your belief comes and goes. Sometimes you feel, "I am prosperous. I can attract and receive wealth." Or "My perfect soulmate is on the way." But you still find yourself frequently arguing with these positive beliefs, sometimes resonating with these statements and images and feelings, other times doubting them.

You affirm and visualize but then slip back into a Level I mentality and vibration: “Yeah, right. What about all those bills and debts?” or “I seem to keep attracting the wrong kinds of partners. I’m better off being alone.”

You are still struggling, trying to make yourself believe it. But it just doesn’t feel real, not really real, not very much of the time.

How can you raise yourself up and deepen your Level II LoA work, so your belief is strong and consistent? I am about to reveal three tips that will help you optimize your Level II and boost your belief.

If you have been experiencing “two steps forward, one step back,” you have not been really fully optimizing your Level II LoA work. So here are three Belief Boosters, tips for successfully using LoA and affirmations, strengthening your Level II intention and belief, and preparing you for Level III! A fully operational Level II LoA practice will include all three of these and will ramp up your success rate as a manifester of your desires.

3 Belief Boosters for Using LoA and Affirmations More Successfully

Belief Booster #1 - * Involve as much of yourself as you can while stating your affirmation.

This is done by really engaging your imagination, seeing your desire, hearing it, touching it and focusing on really living it as your 100% truth. Creative visualization is a powerful key.

*“Imagination is more important than knowledge.”
- Albert Einstein*

At Level II, you are more actively using your imagination muscle.

Thus, in addition to simply thinking, reading and saying your positive thoughts, you are involving more of yourself by singing them, shouting them, dancing them, singing them, drumming them, writing them, creating Treasure

Maps and Vision Boards and so on. This engagement will empower and energize your affirmations much more strongly.

Activating your visual, auditory and kinesthetic intelligences and modes of perception catalyzes your intention, making it feel more real within you, thereby making it real in your life more quickly and surely.

You need to see it, hear it, touch it, really resonate with your affirmation as a total truth. This is why ritual and ceremony are used the world over for time immemorial. By symbolically enacting our intentions physically, we make them more real.

Belief Booster # 2 - * You need to focus on the feeling of joy your desire brings you, keeping your attention on your intention with a positive feeling.

The Abraham-Hicks work talks a lot about raising your vibration through your emotions, and this is vital. I share further methods for tuning up what I call your Creational, Vibrational Guidance System - completely new, channeled, revolutionary techniques - that go beyond the Hicks' work, in my P3 coaching program, and my forthcoming Create Prosperity Now! book.

It's absolutely essential to feel the associated positive emotion because this raises your energetic vibration so you are attuned with your desire and helps attract it to you.

You come into resonance with your desire.

Affirming from an energy of abundance and happiness effectively magnetizes your desire to you, whereas if you are feeling frustrated, fearful, impatient, this repels your desire out of neediness.

The feelings of Joy and Love magnetically attract your heart's desire to you.

Belief Booster #3 - * You need to give thanks! And – here’s the missing key - for your past, your present, and your future.

Give thanks for your past, because it has shaped you into being who you are today. And every experience has a lesson or a gift. By finding the gift, and through forgiveness and heart healing, we set ourselves free from the chains of the past so we can turn our wounds into wisdom.

Give thanks for your present, because doing so helps us live here now and feel more joy (there’s that joy again!)

There is a tendency amongst some folks in the metaphysical, new thought, New Age population to focus so exclusively on that 10% or so that is missing, they forget to fully appreciate and enjoy what is here right now.

Look around you! Your life is BRIMMING WITH BLESSINGS. Give thanks to your Creator. Strive for your every breath to be an expression of thankfulness.

*“If the only prayer you ever say is ‘Thank you,’
it will be enough.”
- Meister Eckhart*

And give thanks for the future, because this is an act of deep faith, saying “Thank you” ahead of time, trusting that your prayer or intention (request from the Universe) is fulfilled.

The attitude of gratitude is such a crucial key. This keeps the faucet of blessings open in your life.

Let’s face it. In this country, even though many people are struggling financially, we are still far better off than most people on the planet. If you have a roof over your head, food on the table, a functioning body and meaningful connection(s), you are tremendously blessed. And your cup is not 50% full. It’s already 80, 90 or 95% full!

G O D = Gratitude Opening Doors!

For more wonderful gratitude practices, please enjoy my blog at:
<http://sageswisdompages.wordpress.com>.

Now, you just gained, more clearly and succinctly, several important ways you can enhance and expand your LoA work, just by boosting your Level II.

But I have much more in store for you ... and so does the Universe, and YOUiverse™ --because YOU are the creator of your experience.

So are you ready for Law of Attraction and Affirmations Graduate School? Great! The main purpose of this Special Report is to help you more fully implement these intermediate LoA practices. And if you really want to become an even more successful and powerful manifester, a joyous cocreator of your dream life, read on to learn exactly what you need to do to master Law of Attraction and your life.

Here's the problem with operating just at Level II (for which I am about to provide the ultimate solution):

Even if we try to affirm and visualize, even if we try to evoke the good feelings and believe, even if we remember to give thanks, even if we try to really get involved in a multisensory way, often some part deep within us does not really believe it!

Deep down, in our unconscious, there is a program or tape that argues with our positive affirming and visualizing. I call this the "B.S. Radar."

For example, you may be sitting there saying or writing a dozen times, "I am prosperous," but another part of you blocks you from really feeling, knowing and attracting this as your truth, because that part is thinking, "No, I'm not. Money seems to go right through my hands. I have so much debt and I never seem to make a good living, no matter what. I have piles of bills I can't pay. Blah blah blah blah."

So really, you are not getting anywhere, except frustrated. I do not agree with the teacher in The Secret who said that mere repetition of this mental "tennis match" solves this inner battle.

Level II practices will tell you that you just have to continuously immerse yourself in the images, words and feelings associated with your intention. But who has time to say affirmations 100 times a day? Who has that kind of patience or persistence, particularly if your results are slow to show up? You want results, you deserve results, and quickly. This is why the Universe guided you to this information today.

Even though at Level II, we are aware we need to "Believe" to receive, and part of us does so, we may still get in our own way and SUBCONSCIOUSLY SABOTAGING our efforts. This is because your consciousness is like an iceberg. We are aware of about 5% of our thoughts, and the other 95% are operating "below the surface."

If the tip of the iceberg wants to go North, and the huge mass below the water line is heading South, which way do you think that iceberg is going to move? You can try to push that tip as hard as you can, yet until most of that submerged power is moving the way you want it to go, you are going to be stuck or heading the wrong way.

My clients and students call me a CATALYST because I do not believe you need to struggle and slog through the muck for years to improve your life. And you should not have to say or write affirmations hundreds of times a day, either.

You can create tremendous transformation very quickly if you operate at Level III. So here's how you do it.

Level III – Law of Attraction & Affirmations Graduate School-ABSOLUTE KNOWINGNESS = LIFE MASTERY

My clients, students, peers, soulmate and I have noticed that the vibration we are in when successfully manifesting WITH EASE is even stronger than a belief. It's a total paradigm shift!

At Level III, you no longer hope or even just believe.

You absolutely KNOW your intention is your truth.

You know that your desire is your birthright. It is your destiny.

BECAUSE ABUNDANCE IS WHO YOU ARE.

*“We don't get what we want.
We get what we are.”- Wayne Dyer*

At Level III, you have gone through what I call your Golden Portal.

When you are 100% LINED UP inside, your outer reality must reflect this. It does so every time, and it does so quickly, consistently and often more miraculously and magnificently than you could even ask for or imagine.

Level III Tips for Life Mastery:

1. “This Or Something Better”

Always remember to ask for: “This or something better, Thy will be done,” and you will allow Spirit-God-Universe-Source to fulfill your desire in the very best way possible.

People often ask me, “Sage, should I be very specific about what I am asking the Universe for, or is it better to give Spirit more freedom as to how to fulfill my desire?”

The answer is: both. Be specific in your visioning about everything that is important to you, yet you also need to be aware that God/Creator can see the Big Picture and knows more than we can from our human perspective. So we have to be clear and ask, and trust and surrender at the same time.

Another way of looking at it is that it’s a matter of cultivating balance between your will and the divine will, or your male, active side and female, receptive side. When these energies are balanced, you take inspired action and are open to receive. A simple way to do this is to include the phrase “This or something better, thank you, Spirit!” in your prayers, on your Vision Board, and at the end of your visualizing and affirmation practice. Some people like to include “Thy will be done” as well.

2. “For the Highest Good of All” and For All Beings

Whatever you are manifesting for yourself, be sure to ask for these blessings for everyone, and that the fulfillment of your desires unfolds in a manner that harms none and is for the highest good of all.

True abundance does not mean riches at any cost; it means a life of soulful service. True abundance is the freedom to enjoy life to the fullest and be who you really are while helping others and expressing your true self.

I am an interfaith minister and professional meditation teacher, as well as an intuitive, healer and coach. One meditation practice that has profoundly changed my life is the Buddhist Metta Meditation in which you pray and affirm happiness, wellbeing, peace and lovingkindness, first for yourself, then for another person, then for all beings. Broadening the scope of your intention and dedicating your own success to helping others are keys.

This way, your positive intention is not just for you; it is not a materialistic, selfish, greedy desire but rather a spiritual, heartfelt, compassionate, purpose-driven vision for abundance for all. All you do becomes compassion in action.

The Real Truth

You are, at this Level of existence, totally thriving because you are living The Real Truth.

The Real Truth:

Whatever we are seeking, we are living it, on the inside.

We are vibrating with prosperity.

We are glowing with health.

We are shining with joy.

No matter what is going on outside of us.

Affirm and Know:

I AM Joy.

I AM Abundance.

I AM Health.

I AM Peace.

And I AM Love.

Repeat this aloud three times, preferably while looking in the mirror and making eye contact with yourself. How does that feel? In my P3 program and my new book, Creating Prosperity Now!, and my Higher Consciousness trainings, I share many wonderful ways to keep yourself energetically attuned to this joyous knowingness of who you truly are.

This is also the state of spiritual enlightenment because at this level, we know there are no limitations of any kind. We are simply one with God, and we know the Universe is open to us.

There is not a sense of hubris or ego at this state. It's very heart-centered. This is the state of "power of love," rather than love of power.

Actually, it is a sense of sacred trust because at Level III, we are so lined up with our right livelihood and our soul destiny, we are living our life purpose and naturally and easily attracting what we desire.

Our lives are an outer reflection of our inner alignment with fully being and expressing the love we truly are.

At Level III, you feel a joyful contentedness almost all the time, an inner peace that is not dependent upon outer approval or circumstances. Can you imagine living this way?

Level I feels the most like work; Level II feels like work but with some payoffs, but Level III feels almost effortless. Total flow.

It's a shift in CONSCIOUSNESS. A shift in BE-ing.

A deep remembering, an unfolding, a celebration of love.

At Level III, you no longer have to spend hours making Treasure Maps or Vision Boards or doing affirmations, although you may choose to do so if they help you FEEL the joy and gratitude and experience the knowingness from deep within.

But even if you are doing these kinds of LoA activities, you are doing them with such a feeling of, “Of course! This is my reality and I love it!” Because you are so lined up with it – it feels like play and joy, not work.

So how do you get into this state of absolute knowingness?

Spiritual practices such as meditation facilitate this awakening. You also need to get internally IN ALIGNMENT to succeed in all areas of your life. Once you are ALIGNED, you then can effectively get into ACTION and create the life of your dreams.

Remember my clients who were having a hard time manifesting wealth and love just by affirmations alone? I am happy to report that they are now living their dreams, by applying Law of Attraction techniques at a higher, deeper level: Level III. Anna has been happily married to her right soulmate for 6 years, and Cathy now enjoys fulfilling, soul-satisfying work that is as creative as it is lucrative. These are just two examples of hundreds of clients and students who have benefited from these techniques. And if I can do it, if they can do it, you can do it, too.

I KNOW you can!

How to Quantum Leap Through Your Golden Portal Into Knowing, Living and Loving YOUR Dream Life!

Here are the two secret keys you will not read about elsewhere, the two keys that will unlock the door that is your Golden Portal.

These two keys are fundamental processes everyone needs to go through to get to the state of absolute knowingness and life mastery. These are the “missing pieces” that 99% of people are not yet utilizing. The first has to do with your beliefs, the second with your soul or energy field.

Golden Portal Key #1: Reprogramming Your Unconscious Beliefs

We have to reprogram our unconscious beliefs two ways.

First, we need to reprogram any negative beliefs, which may be due to life experiences, particularly from childhood and early adulthood, or even from the birth into this world, in utero, or even past lives. We need to identify and then replace those negative beliefs with Higher Truths that are our absolute knowingness from God/our Higher Self.

This is far more powerful than just an affirmation, or even the traditional hypnotic “suggestion.” You are healing the old belief at the level of the subconscious, the root cause, and installing the highest, positive empowerment statement, deeply and completely.

And secondly, we need to boost positive beliefs and turn them into truth, certainty, knowingness. This is the shift from Level II, Belief, to Level III, Absolute Knowingness, which completely aligns you with success, from the inside out.

Golden Portal Key #2: Healing Your Energy Field

In addition to reprogramming and strengthening subconscious beliefs, we also have to create the shift in our ENERGY FIELD. This is because there can be many energetic blocks, drains, other people’s (or entities’) cords or negative thoughts, which are of course all energies.

Because everything is energy, as quantum physics has now documented, the energy you are carrying around is either supporting your intentions, neutral or sabotaging them. You could have cords, blockages or even dark spirits (I call them “Kling-ons”) getting in the way. We are all exposed to all kinds of energy forms all the time.

One of my students, for example, told me she knows that when she goes into a supermarket, she has to energetically clear herself before entering her car because she can easily, accidentally pick up negative energies just from touching the shopping cart! Whether you consider these energies sentient or not, what their intention is, even how they got there, is not really important.

What IS important is that you have techniques for protecting, clearing and energizing your own aura so you have only positive energies and spiritual beings within you and around you.

There are times when we need another healer to help us clear our energy field, but I also highly recommend you get psychic training with a qualified, wise, loving intuitive teacher so you can do as much as you can for yourself. (As you can see, I'm all about "teaching you to fish" rather than just giving you one fish or even a boatload full.)

I am about to reveal to you proven, empowering, life-changing resources for doing this crucial mind-body reprogramming and energetic attunement.

The best methods currently known to do this subconscious reprogramming and energy healing include hypnotherapy, past-life/ childhood regression, Omnidimensional Healing Modality (OHM), PsychK, Emotional Freedom Technique (EFT) and intuitive energy healing methods such as shamanic/soul healing, Reiki and chakra healing.

Omnidimensional Healing Modality is an excellent choice if you prefer to maximize your results and totally change your life very quickly because it incorporates hypnotherapy, regression work, intuitive energy healing and channeling, soul retrieval, sacred symbols, and Reiki. You truly align with your Highest Truth on all levels, body, mind, heart and soul, including your subconscious mind, cellular and quantum level, and energy field, chakras and aura.

You can learn to do some of these methods for yourself, such as self-hypnosis and energy healing, and there are many enlightening books on these subjects; however, just reading about them is not sufficient. You need experiential training.

What Healing or Action Step Is Best for Me Now?

A companion publication that I freely provide that supplements this Special Report is my Law of Attraction Quiz. You can get it instantly by going to www.LoveandSpirit.org and providing your email address. This will guide you to the page for the download of the quiz and also subscribe you to my Love, Spirit & Success newsletter for inspirational articles, special invitations to Telattunements and teleseminars (some are free), and other great re-Sources that will help you create your dream life, live in KNOWINGNESS and fully be the love you truly are.

Use the results from your quiz as well as your own inner knowingness to determine your next step. Do you need deep healing? Training? Or coaching?

Most of us have certain issues in our lives for which we need support and simply cannot be our own healer (exclusively). And even healers like me need to see other healers at times.

Trust your inner guidance. Do you need to reprogram beliefs, heal your energy field, and/or get training in these Mind-Body-Spirit modalities? Meditate, pray, ask for signs, follow the energy of your higher heart, and you will know what to do.

I suggest you work with a healer, therapist, intuitive or shaman with whom you resonate, someone who does their work with heart and who EMPOWERS you. Many so-called spiritual healers, therapists, psychics and teachers simply create codependent, dysfunctional relationships with their clients, i.e. “You have to keep coming to me or else...” Or “I’m the only one who can help you with this, you have to do MY program.” This is a fear-based, not Love-based, dynamic. Controlling. Stay away from this!

Work with someone who has true wisdom, not just knowledge, someone who walks the talk. Before committing to higher-priced 1:1 work or programs, check out their testimonials, credentials, writings, audios and/or videos (you can tell a lot from a person's voice, which reflects their soul just as the eyes do). You can also get lots of free info (like this report), join their mailing list, social networking sites, read blogs, purchase books, audios or a home course.

Holistic healers at the soul and quantum level and success coaches who are genuinely successful, are not cheap because they know their work has value, and they are aligned with abundance through right livelihood. But they will charge a reasonable fee, and the Universe will provide the resources.

The healing you do on your inner self is the most important work you will ever do, and the soundest investment you will ever make, guaranteed to produce results as long as you show up and use the tools.

Many people need support making that quantum leap from Level II to Level III. At the end of this publication, you will find more information about several resources that can assist you. Above all, trust your OWN intuition.

Many blessings to you on your journey!

To Your Abundant Success & Life of Love, Sage
